Vol. 2 Issue 7

Mrs Marshall's Messages:

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! I hope you enjoy some precious time with your friends and families.

Thank you for your incredible support recently! The school fair was a wonderful event, and the photos with Father Christmas were great too. The Christmas carol service today, led by Year 3, was truly brilliant, I'm sure you would agree. Their singing and the Nativity scene were splendid, and the nursery children also brought cheer to the local care home with their lovely nursery rhymes.

I'm thrilled to share that we have raised £238.29 for Dove House, enjoying.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Wishing you all a joyous Christmas and looking forward to welcoming everyone back in the New Year! School starts Tuesday 7th January 2025.

Every day Counts

This week's talking task:

TAKEHOME CONTENTS OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

Protected Characteristics

Some people send cards to celebrate events as part of their religion or belief.
Nobody should be treated unfairly because of their religion or belief.

Rule of Law

Royal Mail provides rules and guidance so people can send cards successfully. These include adding an address and stamp to the card. If these rules are not followed, there are consequences, which may lead to the card not being delivered or the recipient having to pay.

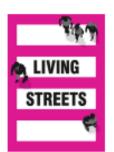

In the news this week

It is thought the number of cards sent this festive period will be lower than in previous years, as stamp prices have increased. The price of a first-class stamp rose by 30p in October, to £1.65. This rise (the fifth increase in less than three years) has also led to fears that the money reaching charities through card sales will be lower this year.

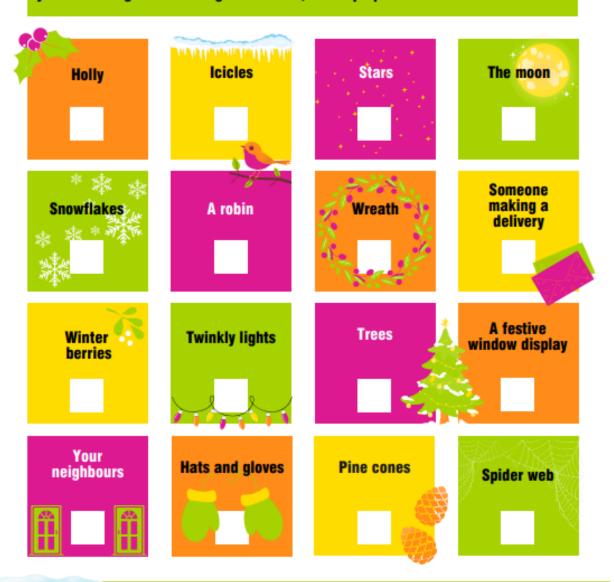

Things to talk about at home ...

- Share your experience of giving and receiving cards and ask someone at home about theirs.
- Fewer cards are being sent each year; talk about why you think this is the case.
- What other ways can you think of to show loved ones that you care and are thinking of them?

WALKING IN A WINTER WANDER-LAND

Think winter means less adventure? Think again! There's lots to find when you're walking and wheeling this season, so wrap up warm and head outside!
